

My Narrative Writing Checklist

Name: _____

My story has an interesting title.

I have used descriptive language and the 5 senses to set the scene and introduce my characters.

I have explained what is happening at the beginning of the story to create the background of my story.

I have kept my reader interested by creating tension.

My story has an exciting problem/climax.

My character(s) solve the problem.

I have shown the feelings of my character(s) as they deal with the problem.

My story has an exciting ending with a solution to the problem or on an interesting cliff-hanger.

I have used paragraphs to introduce a new idea/event.

I have used descriptive language to keep the reader interested.

My story has not changed tense without reason.

I have used speech marks carefully with correct punctuation.

I have not used 'I' in my story.

©thesuitcaseteacher

I have checked my spelling, grammar and punctuation.

My Narrative Writing Checklist

Name: _____

My story has an interesting title.

I have used descriptive language and the 5 senses to set the scene and introduce my characters.

I have explained what is happening at the beginning of the story to create the background of my story.

I have kept my reader interested by creating tension.

My story has an exciting problem/climax.

My character(s) solve the problem.

I have shown the feelings of my character(s) as they deal with the problem.

My story has an exciting ending with a solution to the problem or on an interesting cliff-hanger.

I have used paragraphs to introduce a new idea/event.

I have used descriptive language to keep the reader interested.

My story has not changed tense without reason.

I have used speech marks carefully with correct punctuation.

I have not used 'I' in my story.

©thesuitcaseteacher

I have checked my spelling, grammar and punctuation.